AN IRISH PARLIAMENT.

How It Boomed An Important Industry by Humane Legislation.

In 1634, the Irish Parliament abolished a barbarous and inhuman practice and won the everlasting gratitude of man's best two animal friends. It passed a law entitled "An Act Against Plowing by the Tayle and Pulling Wool Off Living Sheep." Leather trust influence may or may not have been at the bottom of it. History is silent on this point. But the measure no doubt gave a mighty momentum to the leather and harness industry which continued with occasional fluctuations until the present time. There is now more leather and harness manufactured and consumed in Ireland, Hawaii and some other parts of the world than ever before. But much of the leather and harness thrown on the market are poor in quality. One of the peculiarities of leather is, that those who have spent a lifetime working it, can give no reliable rule by which an inexperienced person may judge the quality to a certainty.

Leather may have fine, smooth grain, good color, and to the eye, be all that can be desired, and yet the quality such as to condemn it, the minute it gets into the hands of a workman.

L. K. Pearson, who was brought up in the leather business, is a tanner by trade, a judge of leather and a harness and saddlery man of twenty years experience. He is furnishing to his patrons, harness, saddles, bridles, halters, etc., of the best stock and workmanship known to the trade and at reasonable prices.

If you want a cheap imported harness for $9.00 to $15.00 or a good one from $20.00 to $45.00, Pearson will furnish you the best that can be had for the money. If you prefer a harness of the very finest materials, made by hand just like you want it leave it to

FRENCH ARE SLOW.

General Joseph Wheeler Says their Army is Very Old Fashioned.

New York, September 13.—General Joseph Wheeler came back today from Europe on the American liner Philadelphia. He went abroad to attend the French army maneuvers, and is evidently not impressed with what he saw. He says that upward of 60,000 men took part in these maneuvers, and that, as the results of his observations, he is satisfied that the French have learned nothing from the campaign in South Africa. Their army, he adds, is modern in only a few ways, and is so far behind the times that it is criminal to have it in such a condition. The army possesses no long range guns, and marches in close order instead of extended, the more approved system. Besides, the men are worked and drilled under the old manuel, and are years behind the times in most of the important drill tactics.

NEBRASKA FIGHTS COMBINE.

Governor to Take Action Against the Proposed Merger.

Omaha (Neb.), Sept. 13.—The World-Herald today quotes Governor Savage as saying that any attempt to include the packing-houses of Nebraska in a merger will result in a strong fight in the Courts. On account of the large Nebraska packing interests an attempt of the State officials to prevent the combine from doing business in this State would have a serious effect on the proposed merger. Following is the Governor's view: "As soon as it comes to my knowledge that a merger of the packing interests has taken place, I shall instruct the legal department of the State to investigate fully. If I find that any law of the State of Nebraska is being violated I will direct that proceedings be immediately brought to declare the merger void, and will impose the full penalty of the law against those responsible for the combination."

CZAR MAY RETIRE.

Empress Dowager of Russia Said to Be a Party to an Intrigue.

New York, Sept. 13.—A cable to the Sun from London says: The Paris correspondent of the Observer says he learns from a personage just arrived from St. Petersburg, who is specially well informed, that there is a big party intrigue in the Imperial circle against the Czar and Czarina, which is headed by none other than the Empress Dowager herself. This party does not conceal the satisfaction it would feel if the Czar abdicated in favor of the Grand Duke Michael. This feeling has greatly increased since the hopes of an heir have apparently gone forever.

The correspondent's informant declared that the disappearance of the Czar from the throne at no distant date would not surprise him, and that the forced abdication of the Emperor Nicholas was quite within the bounds of possibility.

TRUST CAMPAIGN BEGUN.

Victims of Trade Combinations Seek Redress in Courts.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Victims of trade combinations with headquarters in Chicago have begun a campaign against such organizations, and United States District Attorney Bethea has told them that if they will furnish the evidence he will take the cases into the courts. The complaints are made against the Electrical Supplies Company, the Master Plumbers' Association and the American Tobacco Company. Attorney Bethea promises that he will take up the charges, incorporate them in a bill for injunction under the Sherman law and forward the document to Attorney-General Knox for approval. He insists, however, that in such cases the victims so-called shall justify their complaints with something tangible.

KING EDWARD RECOVERED.

His Health Alleged to be Better Than For Many Years.

London, September 13.—With the arrival of King Edward and Queen Alexandra at Balmoral, his majesty's convalescence is officially declared complete. The fact that the King has indulged in deer stalking and is now busy with grouse driving, coupled with the departure of the Queen for Copenhagen next week, indicates the confidence of those in attendance upon him that his health is fully restored. Indeed, the King is enjoying better health than for years. The yachting tour of their majesties around the English and Scottish coasts was a lazy, drifting cruise, stopping at many isles hitherto unvisited by them. Their reception everywhere demonstrated their personal popularity.

OLD BOOKSELLER DIES.

His Place Was the Headquarters for Irving, Poe and Others.

New York, Sept. 13.—David G. Francis, who was one of the most noted booksellers of former days in this city, died today at New Canaan, Conn., at the age of 85. He retired five years ago. Francis was in his day the associate of the most famous American writers. Washington Irving, N. P. Willis, Fitz-Greene Halleck and Edgar Allan Poe were among the authors who gathered in his book shop. It was the center for all literary celebrities of that day. He was a member of the Century and New England clubs, and at one time belonged to the Union League.

NO OPIUM IN CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.—Many cough cures contain opium. The effect of this drug is to diminish secretion of the mucus, and the relief afforded is only temporary. As soon as the effect of the opium passes off, the malady returns in a more severe form. The system is also weakened and rendered more susceptible to cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy does not contain opium in any form. It affords relief and leaves the system in a healthy condition. It always cures and cures quickly. The Hilo Drug Store sells it.
